

Terms and Conditions

- Participation in the WN Dev Contest is free. Both professional and amateur game developers can submit their games for the WN Dev Contest.
- Organizers accept games at playable prototype, alpha or beta stage, games released in Early Access, games in preliminary launch or games released not earlier than September 1, 2021.
- Same projects cannot be submitted several times the WN Dev Contest seasons in a row. In addition, if your game has been a winner in any of Xsolla award categories, it is automatically disqualified from participating in these nominations in the future.

Developers can participate in several WN Dev Contests in a row if they are submitting different games. If you want to submit multiple games you'll need to fill out multiple applications

- The submissions are accepted from July 26 till November 9.
- From November 15 till November 20 members of the jury evaluate the projects.
- The submitted game will also be listed among the Developer Showcase projects on the WN Hub during the WN Tel Aviv'22 event.
- Developer can choose the in-person participation at the WN Tel Aviv'22. In this case, Organizers provide Developer with an equipped booth and one Premium ticket for free.
- The Award Ceremony will take place on November 24, 2022 in the Lecture Hall at the WN Tel Aviv'22.
- The exact dates of each period may be changed by organizers at any time if necessary.
- All projects go through pre-moderation by organizers during the entire period.
- Organizers of the WN Dev Contest reserve the right to deny the participant without explanation.
- Members of the jury receive the full list of participants and access to their projects' materials.
- Members of the jury mark the projects out of ten and leave feedback for a developer optionally.
- Providing all data marked as 'Required' in the Registration form is compulsory.
- The Winner(s) will receive the prizes from the partners of the WN Dev Contest according to the description on the Website.
- No WN Dev Contest participant should be subjected to violent, threatening and/or abusive behavior from other Contestants, the jury, sponsors or organizer staff members. In case we learn about such behavior, the person and/or the company they work for will be excluded from the WN Dev Contest without further explanation.
- Organizers have permission to share the Winner's name and email with the partners of the WN Dev Contest.
- Organizers reserve the right to change the conditions of the WN Dev Contest at any time at their own discretion.
- By submitting the project for the WN Dev Contest you show an absolute acceptance of the present Terms and confirm your consent to the processing of personal provided data.

Awards and prizes

- Winners are announced on a predetermined date. In some cases, Organizers can postpone the announcement for several days (for example, to clarify the ratings with some judges).
- WN Dev Contest winners receive prizes directly from our partners.
- If the finalist declines the prize, we send it to the team that took the second place during the voting period.
- Our partners reserve the right to correct the non-monetary prize pool without diminishing its value .
- We get in touch with the winners within a month after competition results are announced.

Data policy

By submitting your game to the WN Dev Contest you confirm that you are familiar with and agree with the competition rules, and give your consent to the processing and storage of personal data.

Organizers reserve the right to share participants' names and emails with our partners. Other personal data is not shared with the jury, sponsors or third parties.

Organizers reserve the right to change these terms and conditions at any time without prior notice.
